Browsing information and cookies

By browsing information we mean information that we collect about your activities on our website by using cookies. If your browsing information is linked to data with which you can be identified for whatever reason, we will treat this information as personal data.

A cookie is a small text file that is stored in the browser of your computer, tablet or smartphone when you first visit our website. The purpose of the cookie is to distinguish your browser from all other browsers that visit our website. By recognizing your browser (IP address, location data, device type) we can better serve you. Recognizing your browser does not mean that we can identify you on the basis of your name, e-mail address or other specific identifiable personal data, because the cookie is only an identification card of the browser.

Artisa uses functional, analytical and tracking cookies with a purely technical functionality. The functional cookies ensure the proper functioning of our website. With the analytical and tracking cookies anonymous data about your surfing behavior is collected. This way we can see how visitors use the website and on this basis we can improve and optimize the website to offer you, for example, customized services. We do not use advertising cookies.

You can opt out of cookies by setting your internet browser so that it does not store cookies anymore. See the help function of your browser.

Google Analytics

Cookies are also placed on this website by third parties. This is a pixel of Facebook and cookies from Google Analytics. We use this service from Google to track and get reports on how visitors use the website. The information that Google collects is anonymized as much as possible. Your IP address is emphatically not given.

View, modify or delete data

You have the right to view, correct or delete your personal data. In addition, you have the right to withdraw your consent to the data processing or to object to the processing of your personal data (or a part thereof) by Artisa or by one of our processors. You also have the right to have the data provided by you transferred by us to yourself or by order of you directly to another party.

To prevent abuse we can ask you to send a copy of your ID with the request. You can always contact us by sending an email to: info@artisagreece.org. We respond to your request as soon as possible, within four weeks at the latest.

How do we protect personal data?

Artisa takes the protection of your data seriously and takes appropriate measures to prevent misuse, loss, unauthorized access, unwanted disclosure and unauthorized modification. If you have the impression that your data is not secure or that there are indications of abuse, please contact us at www.artisagreece.org.
